There will be an intermission.
The Wexford Carol  (Traditional/Arranged by Danú)
This very old Christmas carol has been a favorite in Ireland for many years. It is in English and the song tells us about the holy story.

Miss Fogarty’s Christmas Cake  (Traditional/Arranged by Danú)
This is a very funny song all about the traditional Irish Christmas cake. The Christmas cake is the centerpiece to every Irish gathering at this time of year. Danú encourages everybody to join in on the funny chorus to this song. Here are the lyrics of the chorus:

There were plums and prunes and cherries,
There were citrons and raisins and cinnamon, too
There was nutmeg, cloves and berries
And a crust that was nailed on with glue
There were caraway seeds in abundance
Such that work up a fine stomach ache
That could kill a man twice after eating a slice
Of Miss Fogarty’s Christmas cake.

Oiche Chíuín/Silent Night  (Traditional/Arranged by Danú)
Silent Night is a song that is known the world over. We perform it as “Oiche Chíuín” in the Irish language and follow it into the English version where we encourage everybody to join in and sing along with us.

Christmas Eve Reel  (Traditional/Arranged by Danú)
Christmas Eve Reel is probably the most well known Christmas tune in Ireland. It would not be Christmas time for Irish musicians without “Christmas Eve” the reel.

Le Coinnle na N’Aingeal  (Traditional/Arranged by Danú)
This beautiful Irish song translates as “The Candles of Angels” and is a lovely song about the old Irish tradition of candle lighting in the people’s windows as a sign of welcome.

Slide/Reel Set  (Traditional/Arranged by Danú)
This new instrumental piece by Danú is a lively set of dance tunes featuring some Slides from County Kerry and reels from County Donegal. A great set to dance or clap along to!

The Boys of Barr na Stráide  (Traditional/Arranged by Danú)
This is a great song from County Kerry which mentions “Hunting for the Wren” as sung in the last line of each verse. The wren hunt is an ancient tradition in Ireland which takes place on December 26th “St. Stephen’s Day,” a great day of music, song and celebration.

Polka Selection  (Traditional/Arranged by Danú)
Irish Polkas are mostly associated with the Munster region in Southern Ireland. The Polka Set is a very well-known dance that happens in Ireland when a group of musicians and dancers meet up.

The Parting Glass  (Traditional/Arranged by Danú)
This song is one of Ireland’s greatest farewell songs and is always sung at the end of the evening.
The acclaimed Irish ensemble Danú celebrates a traditional Irish Christmas with A Christmas Gathering: Féile Na Nollag. Celtic music lovers around the globe have been thrilled by the ensemble’s virtuoso players on fiddle, flutes, button accordion, and percussion and the gorgeous voice of Muireann Nic Amhlaoibh. Winner of major awards from the BBC and Irish Music Magazine, Danú returns to the US in December 2014, with special guests and a glorious celebration of Christmas from their homeland.

In Ireland, the festival of Christmas has for centuries been celebrated by traditional Irish music and song. There are many musical tributes that pay homage to early Irish traditions such as The Laden Table, placing a candle in a window, and touring from house to house on St. Stephen’s Day. A Christmas Gathering: Féile Na Nollag is a Celtic music celebration that warms the heart.

“...a vibrant mix of virtuosity, energy, and empathy” - The Washington Post

“... (Danú) stirs the blood and lifts the heart.” - Irish Music Magazine

“...fierce fiddle reels to pensive ballads.” - The New York Times

Arts & Minds: Building on Iowa’s Creative Legacy is a $30 million fundraising campaign to support replacement facilities for Hancher, the UI School of Music, and the UI School of Art and Art History. Our flood recovery is well underway—we’ve moved from reimagining to rebuilding—and when all the work is complete, the landscape of our campus will forever be changed.

“This campaign is a crucial step forward in providing state-of-the-art facilities for our arts campus.”

-Jane Downer
Arts & Minds Campaign Co-chair

“Seldom can a gift to a campaign have such a profound and immediate effect on generations to come.”

Why should an irregular heartbeat be a regular part of your life?

NEVER STOP ASKING | We’re always challenging what’s possible when it comes to heart rhythm disorders such as atrial fibrillation. It’s how we’ve become Iowa’s only hospital to use cryotherapy and pressure sensing technology to maximize safety and accuracy, giving Iowans access to advanced heart treatment options they can’t get anywhere else.
