ABOUT THE ARTISTS

Hubbard Street Dance Chicago (HSDC) was founded in 1977 by dancer and choreographer Lou Conte who served as artistic director until his retirement from HSDC in 2000. Originally the company's sole choreographer, he developed relationships with emerging and world-renowned choreographers as the company began to grow, adding bodies of work by a variety of artists. In the 1980s, Conte commissioned several works by Lynne Taylor-Corbett, Margo Sappington and Daniel Ezralow. He continued to build HSDC's repertoire by forging a key partnership with Twyla Tharp in the 1990s, acquiring six of her works and commissioning an original work for the company. Conte further expanded the company's repertoire to include European choreographers Jiří Kylián and Nacho Duato. These long-term relationships, along with Conte's participation in selecting Jim Vincent as the company's new artistic director, have paved the way for HSDC's future. Through a relationship cultivated by both Conte and Vincent, HSDC further expanded its repertoire with the works of Israeli choreographer Ohad Naharin, including Minus 16, Passomezzo, Queens and Black Milk.

Today, under the dynamic leadership of Artistic Director Jim Vincent, HSDC is among the most original forces in contemporary dance. Critically acclaimed for its exuberant, athletic and innovative repertoire, HSDC presents performances that inspire, challenge and engage audiences worldwide. The company's 21 dancers display unparalleled versatility and virtuosity, allowing HSDC to continually expand its eclectic repertoire and serve as a living archive for significant choreographic works by world-class choreographers and a platform for new dance works by emerging choreographers. HSDC also contributes to dance's evolution by developing new choreographic talent and collaborating with artists in music, visual arts and theatre.

HSDC performs in downtown Chicago and its metropolitan area, and tours nationally and internationally throughout the year. The company has appeared in 44 states and 17 countries at celebrated dance venues including the American Dance Festival, DanceAspen, the Holland Dance Festival, Jacob's Pillow Dance Festival, The Joyce Theater, the Kennedy Center, Philadelphia's "Dance Celebration," the Ravinia Festival, Spoleto Festival of Two Worlds (Italy), Spoleto Festival U.S.A. (Charleston, SC), Sadlers Wells Theatre, The Brighton Festival and Wolf Trap. In January 2004, HSDC joined forces with the Chicago Symphony Orchestra for an engagement conducted by Pinchas Zukerman that brought one of Vincent's goals to fruition by performing his piece, counter/part, to live music.

Hubbard Street 2 (HS2), under the leadership of Artistic Director Julie Nakagawa Böttcher, is a company of six dancers between the ages of 17 and 25 who perform a repertoire of works by some of the nation's most promising young choreographers. HS2 reaches as many as 35,000 people annually through performances in schools, community centers and theaters. Since its inception in 1997, the company has become a respected training ground for young, professional dancers and choreographers; a major component of HSDC's Education & Community Programs; a resource for new dancers for HSDC's main company, and a performing company in its own right. As a part of its mission to identify and nurture young choreographers, HS2 initiated a National Choreographic Competition in the summer of 1999. Each summer, the competition provides three winners each with a one-week residency to create an original work on the company.

Through its multi-layered Education and Community Programs, HSDC exposes students to dance, works with teachers to integrate dance and movement into the curriculum and helps Chicago-area schools and arts organizations create interdisciplinary collaborations. HSDC partners with more than 25 schools each year through its education initiatives: MIND (Moving In New Directions), a K-8 residency program that provides schools with a balance of performances, teacher workshops and classroom experiences; DIAMOND (Dance Inspires Achievement, Movement Opens New Doors), a professional development program for high school dance students; The Kennedy Center's Partners In Education Program, a new initiative to create whole-school model programs; Kraft Foods Art Discovery II, a partnership with other Chicago arts organizations to provide schools with interdisciplinary arts curricula and D.A.R.E.® America, an after-school dance program.

ABOUT THE ARTISTS

The Lou Conte Dance Studio (LCDS) offers more than 60 classes per week to adults and teens in ballet, jazz, modern, African, tap, hip-hop/funk and dance fitness. Named "Best Dance Class for Adults" by Chicago magazine, LCDS offers various levels of classes for dancers from beginners to professionals, taught by some of Chicago's finest dance and music artists. One of the most comprehensive dance centers in the United States, this facility houses five dance studios equipped with state-of-the-art floors and audio systems, including two stage-sized spaces; production shops for building and maintaining sets and costumes; storage space for the company's advanced sound and lighting systems; a sound mixing studio, administrative offices and meeting rooms. In 2002, LCDS opened a satellite location in partnership with the Beverly Arts Center of Chicago to offer classes to adults and teens as well as expanded offerings to children of all ages.

In 1977, Hubbard Street Dance Chicago was launched to fill a community need. Today it stands as one of the most renowned dance institutions in America, reaching out to more than 150,000 people each year through dance creation, performance, training and community education. HSDC continues to serve as an emblem of Chicago's international cultural profile and a model of excellence in dance.

JIM VINCENT (Artistic Director) joined HSDC in August 2000 following an extensive career as a dancer, teacher, ballet master and choreographer. Vincent's dance training began at the age of five and continued through his childhood with Mercer, Burlington and Princeton Ballets in New Jersey. He studied on scholarship at the Washington School of Ballet in Washington, D.C., Harkness House of Ballet in New York City and North Carolina School of the Arts at the University of North Carolina. Vincent's distinguished career as a professional dancer includes a 12-year tenure with Jí í Kylián's Nederlands Dans Theater, a guest appearance with Lar Lubovitch and two years with Nacho Duato's Compañía Nacional de Danza in Spain. As a dancer, he worked with many choreographers, including Kylián, Duato, Lubovitch, William Forsythe, Mats Ek, Hans van Manen, Christopher Bruce and Ohad Naharin.

Vincent has served as ballet master for Nederlands Dans Theater II, Compañía Nacional de Danza and Opéra National de Lyon, where he rehearsed repertory by renowned choreographers Kylián, Duato, Forsythe, Ek, George Balanchine, Angelin Preljocaj and Bill T. Jones, among others. He has restaged choreographies for Duato, including Jardi Tancat, Synaphai and Na Floresta, and for Kylián, including Return to the Strange Land and Stamping Ground. Vincent has choreographed a number of works for Nederlands Dans Theater I and II, Québec's Bande à Part and Switzerland's Stadttheater Bern. In 2002, during his second season with HSDC, Vincent choreographed counter/part for the company, his first work as artistic director, which he has dedicated to the HSDC Board of Directors. His teaching experience includes Holland's Royal Conservatory of the Hague, Australia's Victorian College of Art, Compañía Nacional de Danza and Opéra National de Lyon. He served as assistant artistic director of Compañía Nacional de Danza from 1990-94.

In October 1997, Vincent joined the creative team of Disneyland Paris as a concept designer and show director. He specialized in creating original concepts for corporate entertainment, press and gala events. Born in New Jersey, Vincent is both a U.S. and French citizen, speaks four languages and is married to France Nguyen, a former dancer with Nederlands Dans Theater, Compañía Nacional de Danza and Lyon Opéra Ballet, who is currently the Assistant to the Principal at Lycée Français de Chicago. They have three daughters, Léna, Claire and June.

GAIL KALVER (Executive Director), a native Chicagoan, joined HSDC in 1984. She received a degree in music education from the University of Illinois (Champaign/Urbana) and a master's degree in clarinet from the Chicago Musical College of Roosevelt University. Kalver founded the Windy City Wind Ensemble and also performed with the Chicago Symphony Orchestra, Lyric Opera Orchestra and Grant Park Symphony. She joined the Ravinia Festival staff in 1976, where she became associate manager before joining HSDC. Kalver was also music consultant to the Peabody Award-winning National Radio Theatre. She currently serves on the boards of the Illinois Arts Alliance, Chicago Dancers United and the Arts & Business Council, on the advisory councils of Dancers Responding to AIDS and on the Excellence in Dance Initiative Advisory Committee of the Chicago Community Trust. Kalver is the recipient of the Chicago Dance Coalition's 1988 Ruth Page Award, was recognized by Today's Chicago Woman in 1996 and has co-chaired Dance for Life and the Midwest Arts Conference. In 2003, Kalver was the recipient of the Arts & Business Council of Chicago's ABBY Award for Arts Management Excellence.

ABOUT THE ARTISTS

In 2002, he was elected a Laureate for Lincoln Academy, the state's highest award for individual achievement. He has been credited by many for helping raise Chicago's international cultural profile and for creating a climate for dance in the city, where the art form now thrives.

LUCAS CRANDALL (Artistic Associate) was born in Madison, Wisconsin, and began training in modern dance at the age of 14. After receiving several scholarships in the United States and serving as an apprentice with the Milwaukee Ballet, Crandall went to Europe to perform with the Ballet du Grand Théâtre de Genève, Switzerland. In 1985, he joined Nederlands Dans Theater where he first worked with Jim Vincent, HSDC's current artistic director. After performing with Nederlands Dans Theater for two years, Crandall returned to the Ballet du Grand Théâtre, working with choreographers including Ohad Naharin, Jiří Kylián, Mats Ek and Christopher Bruce. In 1996 he became the company's rehearsal director, assisting choreographers including Oscar Araiz, Lionel Hoche, Amanda Miller, Toru Shimazaki and Etienne Frey, as well as rehearsing ballets by William Forsythe, David Parsons and Ohad Naharin. Since Crandall's arrival in August 2000, he has assisted choreographers such as Harrison McEldowney and Marguerite Donlon. He has also been on faculty with the Lou Conte Dance Studio, as well as ballet and repertory instructor for master classes throughout the United States. A choreographer since 1982, his pieces have been performed in a variety of countries including Switzerland, Italy, France, Canada and the United States. In 1999, Crandall was selected from 60 candidates to be one of six participants for the third SIWIC International Choreographic Workshop in Zürich, Switzerland. He created his first production for Hubbard Street Dance Chicago, entitled Atelier, which premiered in March 2003.

MONICA TROGANI (Rehearsal Director) began dance training at age five, while studying ballet and jazz on scholarship at the New Jersey Ballet School, where she later became a company member and also performed with Dance Compass and the Inner City Dance Ensemble. In 1984, Trogani moved to New York City to study at the Neubert Ballet Institute at Carnegie Hall on scholarship, while studying classical voice technique and joined Dance Theatre of Long Island as a rehearsal assistant in 1985 and eventually became ballet mistress. In 1988, Trogani was invited as a guest to work with the Alberta Ballet in Canada before joining the company the following year as assistant to the artistic director, ballet mistress and dancer. Four years later, she joined Les Grands Ballet Canadiens de Montréal as ballet mistress before moving to Chicagoland with her husband Jay, who is a painter, and her children Esmé and Casey to become HSDC's rehearsal director in 2003. During her career, Trogani has worked on repertory Naharin, Hans by choreographers such as Jiří Kylián, Nacho Duato, George Balanchine, John Butler, Ohad van Manen, Mark Morris, Nils Christie, José Limon, Birgit Cullberg, Kevin O'Day, Itzik Galilli, Edouard Locke, Septime Webre, Didy Veldman, and many others. In collaboration with Roslyn Anderson, she has set Jiří Kylián's Sechs Tänze for Les Grands Ballets Canadiens as well as having set choreographies for Dance Theatre of Harlem, Ballet du Nord, and Ft. Worth-Dallas Ballet.

In 2000, Corman attended the Houston Ballet Academy where, after five months, he became a company member of the Houston Ballet, under the artistic direction of Ben Stevenson. In 2002, he performed with Compañía Nacional de Danza 2, under Artistic Director Nacho Duato. Corman is currently a history major through correspondence with UC Berkeley. He became an apprentice with HSDC in July 2003.

TOBIN DEL CUORE (Norway, ME) began dancing at the age of 12 after studying acting, mime, juggling and acrobatics with a group of "New Vaudevillians" in Maine. In 1995 he was invited to begin his ballet training at the Walnut Hill School in Natick, Mass. Del Cuore attended the Juilliard School graduating in 2001 with a B.F.A. Hancher Showcase

The Hancher Guild Showcase, which is located in the northwest corner of the Hancher Auditorium lobby, begins its tenth year in this new location during the 2004-05 season. This delightful gift shop, which is operated by approximately 65-75 volunteers each year, provides an opportunity for Hancher patrons to purchase unique gifts that are available at reasonable prices and not found elsewhere in the Iowa City area. Profits from The Showcase help to support Hancher's education program.

A Showcase merchandising committee makes several buying trips during the year to gift shows, as well as contacting local artists, and ordering from catalog companies to seek out exciting merchandise.

The Guild Showcase is open during every Hancher event and on Wednesdays from 10:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m.

When attending a Hancher event take time to browse and shop the Guild Showcase. New merchandise is being added all the time.

Bringing People and Their Dreams Together.

Your Goodwill is helping people in our communities make their dreams reality. Since 1965 we have empowered people with disabilities to become more independent. Today we also help welfare recipients get jobs...We help people with brain injuries re-build their lives...We help homeless veterans get back on their feet...We match donated cars with people who lack transportation to jobs. Our life-changing work assisted 954 individuals with disabilities or barriers in 2003. We helped find 269 jobs for Goodwill workers. With your help, our new "Building Opportunities. Enriching Lives" campaign will allow Goodwill to provide additional services for those who dream.

"Hancher offers an opportunity to have a quality experience with our family.
 We all lead busy lives, and going to Hancher performances gives us valuable time to experience something new together. I certainly mention Hancher when I'm recruiting potential employees at the University of Iowa Hospitals and Clinics, and I use it as a recognition tool for staff members. But I feel most strongly about supporting Hancher because I want to ensure these experiences are there
 for other families
 to enjoy, too."

"What good fortune we in the Iowa City community have!

Hancher is a source of ongoing pleasure culturally
 for those of us in the area,
 and we feel it deserves limitless
 support from the recipients of that enjoyment. Applause to Hancher's very effective management, both artistic and executive."

Max Abramovitz architect

Max Abramovitz, the architect of Hancher Auditorium, died on Sunday, September 12 in his home in Pound Ridge, NY. Mr. Abramovitz was 96.

Mr. Abramovitz was best known for the design of the controversial Avery Fisher Hall at Lincoln Center. With his longtime partner Wallace K. Harrison, he had a hand in the United Nations complex as well as several well known buildings in New York City's midtown area. He was also the architect of the Krannert Center at the University of Illinois in Champaign-Urbana.

But for Iowans, Abramovitz will be remembered for his transformation of the west side of the Iowa River into the arts campus of The University of Iowa. In addition to Hancher Auditorium which opened in 1972, he was the architect of the School of Music, the Museum of Art and the addition to the Theatre Building.

Abramovitz was particularly proud of Hancher. From a technical perspective, the building was the largest at the time to be constructed as a "space frame" with the support around the perimeter. James Wochenfuss, Hancher's first executive director, described the special construction technique. "As the workmen bolted each level together, the building literally lifted itself. The inside was filled with scaffolding, and you could see a huge skeleton of angle iron that worked like one giant truss." Abramovitz also took special pride in the lobby which he felt was the best and most gracious he had ever done.

On Hancher's opening night, Darrell Wyrick, then the executive director of the University of Iowa Foundation, stood with Mr. Abramovitz as patrons from across the state poured into the gleaming auditorium. The New York City architect turned to the university fundraiser and said, "The cultural life of Iowa will never be the same."

For many Iowans, this building will be his legacy.

Dance Gala 2004 is "ALIVE!" in Hancher

The University of Iowa Dance Company's 2004 Dance Gala, "ALIVE! In Concert," part of the UI Year of the Arts and Humanities, will showcase not only the excellence of the Dance Department's faculty choreographers and student dancers and student and faculty artists from the School of Music, but also the contributions of two distinguished guest faculty members. Performances are Nov. 11 and 12 in Hancher.

George De La Pena will return to choreography after making his mark as a performer on Broadway, in films and on television. His Broadway credits include The Red Shoes (for which he received a Drama Desk nomination), Are You Now or Have You Ever Been (for which he won a DramaLogue Award) and Cats.

Millions worldwide have seen him in major motion pictures, most notably as the title character in Nijinsky, starring with Alan Bates and Leslie Brown. On TV, De La Pena has been featured in LA Law, Murder, She Wrote, and One Last Dance with Patrick Swayze.

De La Pena is a UI guest artist in ballet while Prof. Basil Thompson is reconstructing Petroushka for the Joffrey Ballet's Nureyev celebration.

The department's guest artist in modern dance, Jennifer Kayle, began her movement education as a competitive gymnast and diver before becoming a dancer and choreographer. She is a founding member of The Architects, a collaborative improvisational movement theatre company.

She says her Iowa City debut, "takes as its subject matter love and other violent crime."

New assistant professor of ballet Deanna Carter will also make her UI debut after arriving this fall from Europe, where she was a teacher, choreographer and ballet mistress for companies including the Leipzig Ballet, the Scottish Ballet and La Scala Ballet,

For her Dance Gala work, pianist Rene Lecuona of the School of Music faculty will perform Mozart's Piano Concerto #23, K 488, in A Major, with a chamber orchestra under the direction of William LaRue Jones.

Jones will also conduct the UI Symphony in one of the most popular works of the classical repertory, Ravel's flashy, mesmerizing Bolero. Faculty member Armando Duarte used the beauty and propulsive power of Bolero for his new Rouge, a large ensemble piece inspired by Degas' sculpture "Le Petite Danseur."

Faculty member Charlotte Adamsco-artistic-director of the Dance Gala --weighs in with a piece set to four Monteverdi madrigals, with a humorous look at the fickle nature of love.

Following the success last season of Escargot, Dance Department chair Alan Sener will one again stage a work by his mentor, Louis Falco, who is best known for his choreography for the movie Fame. Sener is the curator of the Falco repertory, and he has traveled the world setting Falco on professional companies. This season Falco's Hero (1977) will come alive.

Tickets for "ALIVE! In Concert," Dance Gala 2004, are on sale now at the Hancher box office.

COMING SOON

Lyon Opera Ballet

Don't be fooled—the Lyon Opera Ballet isn't an opera company. It isn't a ballet company, either. But this amazingly versatile collection of dancers may very well be the future of dance. The future arrives at Hancher on Wednesday, October 13 at 8 pm.

Trained in classical technique but breaking boundaries as a matter of course, the dancers of the Lyon Opera Ballet are electrifyingly talented and their performance at Hancher will find them embodying work by three of today's greatest choreographers in Europe. The program includes twelvetwentyone, a brand new work by Russell Maliphant; William Forsythe's Second Detail; and the Jiri Kylian's masterpiece Symphony of Psalms, performed to the Stravinsky piece of the same name.

An open rehearsal, a free event during which community members will have the opportunity to see the company preparing for performance, will take place from 2:30 to 4 pm on October 13. In addition, ticket holders are invited to a pre-performance discussion in the Hancher greenroom at 7 pm. Space is limited so plan to arrive early.

An open rehearsal, a free event during which community members will have the opportunity to see the company preparing for performance, will also be scheduled on October 13. Watch the Hancher web site—www.hancher.uiowa.edu—for details. In addition, ticket holders are invited to a pre-performance discussion in the Hancher greenroom at 7 pm. Space is limited so plan to arrive early.

The performance by the Lyon Opera Ballet is supported by Roger and Gayle Klouda; Darlene and Michael McNulty; and Carl and Julie Schweser. It is also funded in part by the National Dance Project of the New England Foundation for the Arts, with lead funding from the National Endowment for the Arts and Doris Duke Charitable Foundation. Additional funding has been provided by The Andrew W. Mellon Foundation and The Ford Foundation.

Tickets for the October 13 performance by the Lyon Opera Ballet are available from the Hancher Box Office: 335-1160 or 1-800-HANCHER, or online at www.hancher.uiowa.edu.

About:

It's not an opera company; it's not a ballet company. It is an eye-poppingly electric experimental modern ballet company. The program features work by the biggest names in modern choreography including including William Forsythe's Second Detail, Russell Maliphant's twelvetwentyone, and Jiri Kylian's early masterpiece Symphony of Psalms, set to Stravinsky's music of the same name.

Hancher Auditorium Information

Hancher Auditorium is a component of the Division of Student Services, University of Iowa.

Box Office: Open from 10:00 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. Monday through Friday, 11:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. Saturday. On nights of performances, the Box Office remains open until 8:30 p.m. If a performance falls on a Saturday or Sunday, Box Office hours are 1:00 to 8:30 p.m. Telephone: 319/335-1160, or toll-free in Iowa and western Illinois 1-800-HANCHER.

Seating Policy: To avoid disrupting the performance, latecomers will be directed to the observation rooms and will be seated during an appropriate break in the performance, at the discretion of the management. If you must leave during a performance and later wish to reenter the auditorium, an usher will escort you to an observation room until an intermission or the conclusion of the performance.

Greenroom: The greenroom, located on the river side of the lobby, is the site of discussions preceding many events and is also a convenient place to meet artists following a performance. Ask an usher, or check the lobby sign for availability of performers.

Coughing and Electronic Devices:

The auditorium's acoustics amplify the sounds of coughing and other noises. Please turn off your electronic watch alarm, beepers and cell phones. The use of a handkerchief helps to muffle a cough or sneeze, and cough drops are available from the ushers. If coughing persists, you may wish to return to the lobby, where an usher can direct you to one of the soundproof observation rooms.

Smoking: Smoking is not permitted anywhere in the auditorium, lobby, or Cafe. If you wish to smoke during intermissions, you may leave the building, but please take your ticket stub for reentry to the facility. We also ask that while outside you step away from the doorways so that smoke is not blown back into the building. Smoking is permitted only on the East Patio (the river side). We appreciate your cooperation.

Cameras and Recording Equipment:

In compliance with copyright laws and contractual arrangements with artists, photographs and recordings may not be made during a performance. Please check your cameras and tape recorders with the house manager or an usher.

Restrooms and Drinking Fountains:

Located on either side of the lobby and mezzanine.

Sometimes, all you need is a lift.
