Sunday, October 13, 3:00 pm

An ensemble of 13 exceptional musicians—including David Finckel on cello and David Shifrin on clarinet—celebrate the intrepid (and diverse) American spirit in a performance highlighting two pairs of composers who helped shape classical music in the twentieth century. Harry T. Burleigh was a star student of Dvořák who exposed the Czech composer to American spirituals and was in turn encouraged by Dvořák to perform African American folk music. Two generations later, Copland and Bernstein conceived a clean, clear American sound conveying the wonder of open spaces and endless possibilities.

PROGRAM (subject to change):

Burleigh: Southland Sketches, for violin and piano
Dvořák: Quintet in E-flat Major, Op. 97 (“American”)
Bernstein: Sonata for clarinet and piano
Copland: Appalachian Spring Suite
