

Syed Umar Warsi, Amir Safi, and Amal Kassir

An evening of spoken word poetry

Friday, February 21, 7:30 pm

Drawing from the wellspring of their lived experiences as Muslims, artists, and more, three spoken word poets and storytellers will present an evening of powerful and deeply felt work.

$10 STUDENT
TICKETS

TICKETS:

ADULT: $25

COLLEGE STUDENT: $10

YOUTH: $10

EVENT SPONSORS:

General Hancher Partners

Hancher Circle Donors

Negin Farsad

Saturday, February 22, 7:30 pm

A self-described “social justice comedian,” Negin Farsad has been named one of the 10 Best Feminist Comedians by Paper magazine and one of the 50 Funniest Women by Huffington Post. She is also the writer, director, and star of the romantic comedy 3rd Street Blackout and the director and producer of Nerdcore Rising and The Muslims Are Coming! While promoting the latter, she sued New York’s MTA for the right to put up humorous posters about Muslims. She won. She’ll win you over, too.

$10 STUDENT
TICKETS

TICKETS:

ADULT: $40 | $30 | $20

COLLEGE STUDENT: $36 | $10

YOUTH: $20 | $10

EVENT SPONSORS:

François M. and Doris E. Abboud

Little Village

Jo Ellen Ross

EMBRACING COMPLEXITY

Hancher’s Embracing Complexity project celebrates and explores Islamic art, Muslim artists, and traditions from Muslim-majority parts of the world. Learn more at hancher.uiowa.edu/embracing-complexity.

This project is made possible in part by a grant from the Association of Performing Arts Professionals - Building Bridges: Arts, Culture, and Identity, a component of the Doris Duke Charitable Foundation and Doris Duke Foundation for Islamic Art.

 HANCHER AUDITORIUM

Discover more at hancher.uiowa.edu

Individuals with disabilities are encouraged to attend all University of Iowa sponsored events. If you are a person with a disability who requires a reasonable accommodation in order to participate in this program, please contact Hancher in advance at (319) 335-1158.