Trilogy

Friday, October 11, 7:30 pm

Chick Corea's 2014 triple-disc set, Trilogy, added a live masterwork to the venerated pianist's discography. Featuring bassist Christian McBride and drummer Brian Blade, the recording was a triumph. Now, Corea, McBride, and Blade are bringing the music from Trilogy back to live audiences. This trio is nothing short of a supergroup—and the music they make together is top-shelf jazz.

New World Spirit

Sunday, October 13, 3:00 pm

An ensemble of 13 exceptional musicians—including David Finckel on cello and David Shifrin on clarinet—celebrate the intrepid (and diverse) American spirit in a performance highlighting two pairs of composers who helped shape classical music in the twentieth century. Harry T. Burleigh was a star student of Dvořák who exposed the Czech composer to African American spirituals and was in turn encouraged by Dvořák to perform African American folk music. Two generations later, Copland and Bernstein conceived a clean, clear American sound conveying the wonder of open spaces and endless possibilities.

Sankai Juku

Utsushi

Tuesday, October 22, 7:30 pm

For the first time in 20 years, Sankai Juku, Japan's internationally renowned butoh dance troupe, returns to Hancher. Utsushi has been crafted from restaged excerpts of choreography by company founder Ushio Amagatsu. Butoh, which has been called Japan's most startling cultural export, is entrancing, surprising, and often deeply moving. Utsushi is the perfect introduction to the mesmerizing work of Sankai Juku.

SITI Company

The Bacchae

Directed by Anne Bogart

Saturday, October 26, 7:30 pm

In this new English translation and innovative take on one of the Western world's greatest dramas, SITI Company invites us to Thebes where Dionysus—god of wine, ritual madness, fertility, and theater (and in this production imagined as a rock star of the first order)—is opposed and imprisoned by King Pentheus. The struggle between wildness and order (and frivolity and seriousness) is at the heart of this play, which still resonates all these centuries later—and perhaps at this moment in particular.
